

Summer 2008 - Scholland Equestrian

Written by Debbie Maas

Wednesday, 16 April 2008 09:55 - Last Updated Tuesday, 05 May 2009 08:04

The summer camps are well under way with only 2 more to do we have had lots of fun with sessions in jumping with Sandra Lowmichal at her yard (Balcomo stud) and sarha Holden for cross countrey at her yard up in Perthshire as well as all the usual fun and games at home. Victoria Gladwin BHS AI has also been teaching as well.

The Horses have been bizzy cometing as well Kelso was a lovely show and we will defanitley going next year. we are looking forward to Blair in a few weeks followed by the festaval of champions aand then Brittish Dressarge championships as well so a lot happerning in the next few months.

Lessons are still populer although we are recomending that you book at least 2 weeks in advance a few of our regular students have missed out on camps and lessons sorry for that we do try to acomadat all our clients.